POLICE REPORT

Case No: 007 - 42071

Reporting Officer: Martin Riggs

Date: 09 - 02 - 2025

Prepared By: H Callihan

Incident: Subjects traveling at a high rate of speed in red Chevelle convertible going east on Chestnut Street did NOT slow down approaching railroad track, and left the ground, launching the vehicle into the air. Police call came in from citizen reporting that the incident gave his little dog "Muttin" a heart attack, and he had to use mouth to mouth on the animal to revive him. Reports have come in from all over town about these ladies doing similar stunts at bridges, roads, and anywhere.
